

Are You Wondering If Fostering is Right for You?

Join us at the GPSII/MAPP Meetings to help you decide!

GPSII/MAPP – is a program that helps prospective foster and adoptive parents make informed decisions about whether foster parenting or adopting is right for your family.

Meetings will be starting September 30, 2015, 6-9PM at the Community Health and Wellness Center.

Completion of the 10 week GPSII/MAPP is one of the first steps to becoming a Certified Foster Family with the Seneca Nation of Indians Child & Family Services Program

Schedule: WEDNESDAYS, 6-9PM at the Community Health & Wellness Center,
September 30 – December 2, 2015
