Do:nisosiya’goh, Do:nisosiya’goh!?
(How many winters have you seen? AKA How old are you? X4)
Welcome our Newest Staff Members!

Gaehnew Printup is our After School Coordinator

*Gaehnew belongs to the Tuscarora Nation. He has 2 children (4 years & 6 months). He enjoys playing lacrosse, studying language, singing, dancing, & being active. He currently attends Syracuse University for the Iroquois Linguistic Program. He has great plans & outlooks on the program. He will be a great asset to our center. Feel free to contact him with any questions, suggestions, or input about the program.

Rayna Parker joined the Infant Room as a Teacher Assistant

*Rayna has a daughter that is about to be 2 years old. She enjoys sewing, art, & spending time with her daughter. One of her goals as a T.A. is to obtain her Childhood Developmental Associate (CDA). She is very nurturing & is a perfect fit in the Infant Room.

Miss Marie continues to be very knowledgeable of ECLC policies & procedures. She is very helpful when she submits her paperwork & other important information (including her newsletter submissions) in a punctual manner. She becomes accustom to changes that may be made which makes her dependable as a Lead Teacher. She is an outstanding problem solver! She’s just an overall team player.

Not done yet!! -She also continues to create strong relationships with her After School kids & daycare children. There is a mutual feeling of love & respect between her & the children. She has a way of engaging them to help them learn.

We would like to congratulate Marie as we acknowledge her as our January Employee of the Month! Thank you for your hard work, reliability, & most importantly your consistency of delivering outstanding performances!

The Bazaar was a huge success!
December 16th, 2015

We celebrated Akso:d’s birthday with a social! We surprised her with birthday cake & sang Ao’esad Hosashehoh to her! During this social, we had students from Australia experience the celebration with us. They really enjoyed themselves & were interested in the Haudenosaunee culture.
Embery—sitting up on her own
Nevaya—using more words
Vaughn—stack nesting cups & using more words
Brilyn—is inching along on all four’s
Hawenoda:je’s—working on his tummy time

Oakley—using more words

Inside Out Day
We will be viewing this movie as our January Event on:
WED. JANUARY 27TH
Don’t forget your PJ’s!

This month we will focus on Emotional Development
* Positive self image
* Cooperation
* Developing trust & independence
* Helping others
* Taking turns
* Expressing feelings

Willa Brooks will be starting her transition to the Toddler Room. She will officially be a Toddler on January 25th!
Happy 3rd Birthday Karson!
He has recently transitioned into the PreK classroom. Best wishes Karson! We will miss you. Stop by or wave in the window any time!

Welcome Willa Brooks!
She will begin her transition January 4th!

The Seneca Language Staff visits to sing & dance to social songs with us. Every Tuesday.

What have we been practicing?
*numbers  *letters  *colors

What have we been enjoying?
We have been playing in the sensory table. The sand feels really soft!
Miss Kitty added new blocks into the block area! Playing with blocks teaches us about balance, gravity, & measurement.

December was special.
We had a lot of fun at the Winter Wonderland playing with bubbles, making crafts, decorating cookies, & drinking “hot” chocolate.

We have been enjoying MORE outside time on the playground & going for walks because of the nice weather we have had.

Please bring hats, gloves, boots, & extra clothes for outside play!
PATHS Curriculum

*Reviewing how to use our words when we are angry or upset
*Remembering how to “Do Turtle” when angry, upset, or even over-excited

Ask your child to show you how to Do Turtle!

Milestones your 3-year old should be attempting or mastering so far:

*Taking turns. It’s a skill that they will learn as they approach Four. If they are upset or worried, they will not be able to share their own special things.

*Able to be patient a short time for what they want. Ex: “we will go outside after you eat your lunch.”

*Being eager to please you. With your help, they might want to try something new

*More comprehension to communicate instead of throwing tantrums.

*Overcome fears such as odd noises, the dark, animals, monsters, etc.

*Developing sense of humor. They love to laugh & repeat!

This month we will focus on Emotional Development

*Positive self image
*Cooperation
*Developing trust & independence
*Helping others
*Taking turns
*Expressing feelings

---

WE WISH RYLAN STAFFORD THE BEST AS SHE RETURNS TO HASKELL INDIAN NATIONS UNIVERSITY!

We loved having her as part of our Pre-K family, and look forward to her visits on her breaks! WE WILL MISS YOU,
The Letters we will be working on to start off the new year are

* O, P, Q, & R

We will be focusing on 1 to 2 Authors a month. We will read & do activities of those authors.

This month’s Authors: A.A. Milne & Lewis Carroll

We will also be working on

over, under, & balance

This month’s Character Trait is: forgiveness

Our friends will start having work sent home to do with you!

Please make sure your child has extra clothes & a blanket for nap. When we go on walks or play in the snow, please make sure they have warm clothes like hats & gloves.
Attendance & communication are very important! Our Head Start Program is preparing your child for Kindergarten & his/her educational future.

Thank you for checking your child’s book bag & communication notebook each night.

We Rock the Spectrum Field Trip- 9:45-12:15
We have been so lucky to experience beautiful weather in the month of December.

In our classroom we are working hard on:

* Letter recognition * Sound Identification
* Giving each other compliments * Talk about feelings
* Getting into our Twiggle (Turtle) shell when we are upset
  - Turtle = When upset... STOP! Breeeeeath

We are very proud of the participation!

Please follow through & work on the Alphabet sheet given during conferences.

Ways to improve literacy at Home:

* Point out the author & title of the book
* Ask open-ended questions * Ask “WH” questions WHO was in the book? WHY were they sad? How did they get home? WHAT was your favorite part?

We had a post office set up in our room and the children are loved it! They could write on decorative paper or post cards and mail letters in our mail box. They sorted mail and used a pretend cash register to buy packing and stamps.

Children playing in our post office are learning about literacy, math and writing while having fun!

This month’s theme is learning about the body & senses

Please dress your children appropriate to the weather.

ECLC STAFF for ALL of their hard work & effort put in throughout the year for successful center events, lessons, procedures, etc. YOU ARE APPRECIATED!

Our ECLC Annual Holiday Bazaar was a huge success! Thank you to all Employees, Parents, Vendors, SNI Departments, local business, and other community members for your contributions & support!!!!

RYLAN STAFFORD for her dedication of time & skills to the children. She has created strong everlasting relationships with both children & staff. Her positive energy is so contagious. We wish her luck as she returns back to Haskell to continue her studies.

RENA FOX for her constant dedication to ECLC. Her very hard work is impressive!! We are so thankful that she is so passionate about her work & that her health is in good spirits.
4 Self Care Tips for Parents - Stress comes from a lack of self care

Take care of yourself physically as otherwise you may get stressed and overloaded. Ask yourself ‘Am I minding myself?’ and if you are not; make some small changes.

Physical Self Care

1. Do you push yourself hard? Slow down and let it go..
   - Find a half hour to walk/run/exercise makes the rest of the day more manageable.
   - Say No as when you say ‘Yes’ to someone; you say ‘No’ to yourself and put yourself under pressure.
   - When you are ‘losing it; step back and deep breathe to calmness
   - Ask for help and accept the help or support that is offered.
   - Get 7/8 hours sleep at night
     - Be moderate in food and alcohol

Relaxation

2. Take time for a hobby, an interest or simply time to relax.
   Everyone has something they enjoy; but do you take time for yourself? It may be Cooking, gardening, music, art, sport, etc. Maybe with young children a hobby has been forgotten; so taking an hour in the week that is just for you can be a start. Perhaps a class you join with a friend so you enjoy the class, the company and getting out of the house! You will be a better mom if you take a little time and space for yourself.

Ease Up on yourself and others

3. Reduce your expectations
   Ease up on yourself! So many of us are hard on ourselves and our inner critic works overtime! Stop criticising yourself, and instead say “I handled that well” or “I did my best”. Accept yourself exactly as you are – when you do; you will ease up on everyone else as well!

Treat yourself better! Practice kindness, patience and compassion

4. Be Kinder to yourself
   Simply this means throughout the day; be aware of your needs and find a way to meet them.
   - Set a date night with your partner
   - Arrange to meet a friend or someone who is a ‘spark’ person in your life
     Every day; take a few minutes of time and space for you to do something you enjoy whether it is listening to music, a short relaxation/meditation or a soak in a candlelit bath. Often, the time can be got through less screen time, so disconnect!

Meeting your needs ensures you can meet everyone else’s needs!
When parents take care of themselves, they are calmer and more patient with their children. Parent’s set the tone; so ask you ‘what tone do I set?’ If you are shouting; you may be shouting for help. Therefore; support yourself through doing less, asking others to do more and self-awareness around you needs; then find a way to meet them.. For everyone’s sake as well as your own!
