Employee of the Month

Shawn Ralston After School Program Teacher Assistant

This month, we would like to recognize Shawn Ralston as our Employee of the Month. He is always cheerful & ready to help out wherever needed. He has good relationships with all of the children. He treats them with respect and they respond to him very well. He is a very good example of making healthy choices. He enjoys reading and exercising his brain as well as his After School kids by reading with them & playing strategy thinking games. He has a great ability to think on his toes! We are very thankful the children have someone like Shawn to mentor them. There is nobody as nerdy as him! ;)

Good job Shawn! We appreciate all that you put forth!

Hello & Farewells

We welcome Jamie Luke as our New Bus Driver! He is already great help around the center & we are glad to have him back.

We also welcome Betty Allen as our other bus driver! She is very enjoyable to work with.

WE LOOK FORWARD TO WORKING WITH OUR NEW TEAM MEMBERS!

Tami Thompson has decided to pursue her education & focus on her family. We commend her for her decisions to do these for herself.

Jackie Yallup has ended her ECLC journey with us. She was an excellent teacher and loved by the children. We admire her decision to focus on her well being. She looks for future employment in a different field.

We also would like to give a big farewell to Diane Parry. We congratulate her on her retirement & wish her the best of fun! She was VERY helpful & a great problem solver.

THANK YOU TO THESE LADIES FOR THEIR NURTURING SERVICES. WE WISH YOU THE BEST OF LUCK IN EVERYTHING YOU DO!

Parent Committee Meeting

Date: 1/26/16

Attendance:

Lauren Stevens
Alana Montour
Barbara
Vicki Patterson

Old business:

ECLC Annual Holiday Bazaar Fundraiser event, Saturday 12/12/15 9AM – 4PM. –Was a success! We had sold 80 Vendor Tables! It was discussed the cost of vendor table/space of $25 vs $30 for next year’s bazaar. It was agreed to sell tables at the $30 price in order to accommodate the rental cost of all the tables and the 2 chairs for each table.

Super bowl Football Pool - Committee and ECLC discussed the decision of the pool due to only 6 out of the 100 squares being sold. It was agreed to not continue the Super bowl Football Pool due to the high selling cost, limited amount of time left in month and lack of parent involvement to sell/promote the fundraiser. Money will be returned to those who bought a square. It was agreed in order for fundraisers to be a success; parents must also be active in the fundraising efforts.

New business:

ECLC has begun planning an event for parent involvement and also incorporating “Hug Your Child” Day into the theme.

Election of officers- It was decided to put out a paper ballot to see who would be interested in holding a position on Parent Committee. A follow up vote would be held at the next parent committee meeting.

Parent Involvement/ Center Event:

February’s parent involvement event at the center will be our “Hug Your Child Dance”. This event was suggested to be held in the evening in order to accommodate more families.

Parent Involvement Coordinator will put out donation of items and parent volunteer time request form out to all parents at the center for February’s event.

Next meeting: 2/23/16

INFANTS

To promote good health within our classroom, we are carrying out extra duties to keep our things sanitized. We are doing more than the bare minimum to eliminate excess germs. It is unfortunate that we cannot prevent those nasty contagious germs but we will continue doing everything we can to eliminate them.

REMEMBER to wash your hands at home! This is the biggest thing that anyone can do to be healthy.

We have sensory activities with the babies. The pictures shown above is sticky paper taped to the floor. Some of our babies were curious about it. Some of them liked the feeling. Some of them did NOT like the feeling. We introduce new textures often. We get different responses each time.

Waddlers would like to welcome Vaughn Redeye!
His transition is going well and will be full time this month!
Milo Tallchief & Sadie Stevens will be moving forward to the Toddler Room! We will miss them both.

Nya:wëh for teaching us as much as we taught you!

Keagan Stevens enjoys working at the felt boards. His favorite feltboard story is "The Artist who Painted a Blue Horse" Keagan can name the animals as well as the color.

Sadie Stevens enjoys working at the chalkboard. She went from drawing lines to circles in a short amount of time.

Milo Tallchief enjoys building. He went from stacking blocks to building airplanes, trains, & boats.

Aaliyah White loves to read. Her favorite book is "From Head to Toe" by Eric Carle.

Kade Spruce's hand-eye coordination is developing well. He can now catch & hit balls in motion.

PRE-K 1

This month's theme is about Caring.

We are emphasizing recognizing our feelings and learning how to talk about how we feel; we are also teaching them how to recognize our friends feelings, based on their facial expressions and actions. Talking about helping their friends, or to include their friends in cooperative play are some of the ways we are going to include this in our day-to-day interactions in our classroom.

We will be joining PreK 2 on a field trip to Shea's Performing Arts for Sesame Street Live! February 26th

More info to come as the date gets closer!

We are excited to have Mayce Jones and Halia Rivera join our Pre-K family, as well as new assistant Kitty Hill! Mayce and Halia are easing into their new classroom environment very smoothly, and it's nice to have more girls join us!

We are so excited that Punxatahney Phil did NOT see his shadow...this means an EARLY Spring!! We have been pretty lucky this year as far as weather goes; hopefully we will have an opportunity soon to enjoy some snow play before Spring arrives, but I think we are all ready for warmer weather!

4 YRS. — 5 YRS.

PRE-K 2

We will be working on Letters: S, T, U, V
Our concept for this month is In-Out.

Please bring in extra clothes for when we want to go outside.

We welcome Loni Stevens to PreK 2!

Tyonih is working on perfecting writing his last name. He is recognizing a heptagon & octagon.

Myles is working on recognizing a heptagon & octagon.

Emmi is perfecting writing her name. She knows her heptagon shape.

Riley is learning how to write her R & last name.

The children had a wonderful time playing outside in the snow last month. They enjoyed building snowmen and just spending time in the fresh air. We will try to get them outside again. We will watch the weather and when it warms up a little, we will take them out again. We can all use a little fresh air around this time of year. Please remember to send your child to school each day with a warm coat, hat, gloves, boots, etc. It's very cold outside and we want to make sure that our little ones are warm on the bus to and from school.

HEAD START 2

News from Head Start Two

Winter has finally made its appearance in Western New York. The children have been excited to observe the snowfall. We will plan for more snow play days outside to experience the fun the snow brings us. Please don't forget to dress your children warm on really cold days.

Rock the Spectrum field trip

What an awesome field trip, the children really had a blast. The gym is located in the tops plaza in Derby. It's a must check out for winter blues. The gym has a zip line, climbing wall, trampoline and many more fun large motor hands-on activities to play on. I appreciate the parent involvement we had on our trip.

PATHS lessons

Twiggle is our beloved turtle that teaching us techniques to calm down when we are upset. Remind children to get in their Twiggle shell: STOP, BREATH and State the problem. I'm very proud of our friends using this technique in the classroom. We also really are showing more empathy towards our friends.

Iroquois Midwinter Ceremony

Type of Holiday: Calendar/Seasonal, Religious (Iroquois)

Date of Observation: January-February; begins five days after the first new moon in January

Where Celebrated: New York, Wisconsin, Canada

Symbols:

Bear Dance, Big Heads, Dreamsharing, False Face Society, Great Feather Dance, PeachStone Game, Stirring of the Ashes, Tobacco Invocation, White Dog Sacrifice

General Description

The Iroquois Midwinter Ceremony is held in either January or February. When the dipper constellation appears in the sky directly overhead, you then wait for the new moon to be seen. This is when the spiritual year begins. You then wait 5 days after the new moon to begin the ceremony. The celebration lasts 9 days with a lot of traditional events, as well as choosing new council members for the next year.

This celebration is observed among the tribes of the Iroquois Confederacy or The Six Nations: Mohawk, Oneida, Onondaga, Cayuga, Seneca and Tuscarora. Because the Mohawk flag is purple and white, I chose to use that color scheme for this page.

This is also known as the "New Year's Ceremony" because it marks the beginning of a new ritual year. The "Big Heads" announce this ceremony. They are masked messengers who visit the longhouse (a bark covered structure where the Iroquois used to live) now used as a public activity space. The Big Heads invite everyone to participate.

There is no specific order to this ceremony. Each tribe has their own way of doing it. But the usual custom is to first begin with the "Stirring of the Ashes" as a symbolic gesture of showing gratitude for all the blessings bestowed during the previous year. There is a public naming event where all the children born during the previous year are now given their Indian names. There are also two traditional Indian dances, The Bear Dance and the Feather Dance.

Tobacco is an important element in many Native American celebrations. In the Midwinter Ceremony, they have a Tobacco Invocation ceremony that represents a way of communicating to the Creator, both a message of thanksgiving, as well as a plea for a successful growing season for the new year.

The Iroquois also believe that dreams are not just fantasies. They feel dreams represent a cure for diseases and mental disorders. So they have a Dreamsharing Ritual. They feel that by getting people to share their dreams in public, getting opinions on what those dreams might mean, the Iroquois believe that they are better able to resolve whatever problems or conflicts gave rise to the dreams in the first place. They have a group of medicine men known as The False Face Society, who perform the appropriate curing ritual once these dreams have been interpreted.

One of the highlights of the Midwinter Ceremony used to be what was called The White Dog Sacrifice. It is no longer done! Instead today, instead of a dog, they use a white basket. For more on this read further below under the specific customs. However, it could be a bit disturbing for animal lovers and some children.

The Midwinter Ceremony ends with a speaker who gives a summation of the 9 days of the celebration. He also gives a brief thanksgiving address. It is at this time that the new council members (who have been chosen for the upcoming year) are introduced to the crowd at the longhouse. The rest of the tribe's members are now purified and released from the burden of their dreams. And a new year is now welcomed.
