

BULLYING & SUICIDE in Indian Country

Presented By Keahi Souza

Monday, Oct. 1st

Allegany (LRJHC - Grand Room) 9 to 11:30 AM

Cattaraugus (CHWC - Grand Room) 1:30 to 4 PM

FACT: Bullying is a national epidemic with long-lasting consequences to its victims.

FACT: Suicide rates among American Indian/Alaska Natives are 2.6 to 3.3 times higher than the national average.

PLEASE JOIN US OCTOBER 1st for important information on:
relational aggression • cyber-bullying
self-injurious behaviors • interventions

For more information, please contact Health Educators Robin Crouse, 945-5894 or Natasha Souter, 532-8223.

Keahi Souza is a licensed master social worker who currently serves as the social services director for Jemez Pueblo. He has been working in the area of adult and youth gangs for the last 10 years developing & supervising gang intervention programs both on and off Indian Country.*

