Let's READ! READ! READ!
Children's Reading Program

My Book Summary

Name: __________________________ Date: _______________________

Book Title: __________________________
Author: __________________________

Directions: You must complete all sections. Use 3-5 very descriptive sentences to answer the questions.

SETTING

What is the setting in the story?

______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________

Does the setting change?

______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________

Draw a picture & describe a scene from the book.

______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________
Let's READ! READ! READ!
Children's Reading Program

CHARACTERS

Name & describe 3 characters.

1 __________________________ 2 __________________________ 3 __________________________

Who is the main character? __________________________________________

Describe his/her physical characteristics & their personality. _________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

Draw a portrait of the main character.
Let's READ! READ! READ!
Children's Reading Program

How are you like the main character? How are you different? ________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

The relationship between characters is very important to a story. Who might the main characters most important relationship be with & why? ________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

Did any of the characters change throughout the story & how? ________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

If you could be a character in the story, who would you be & why? ________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

THE STORY

Write a brief summary of the book. What is the story about?

Beginning: ________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________
Middle: ____________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________

End: ______________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________

Was there a conflict in the story? If so, what was it & how was it solved?

____________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________

Which part of the story was the most exciting? __________________________

____________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________

Did you like the end of the story? Why or why not? _____________________

____________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________

What do you predict will happen next? _________________________________

____________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________
Let's READ! READ! READ!
Children's Reading Program

Fill in how many stars you give this book.

1  2  3  4  5

Recommendations: Please ✓ box.

Highly Recommend Reasonable
Not Recommend

Thank you for your participation & hard work! Great job!

Let's start another great BOOK!