PRESIDENT'S OFFICE

EXECUTIVE ORDER

Excluding and Banishing Edward M. Kindt from Seneca Nation Territories

WHEREAS, The Seneca Nation has the inherent right to exclude and banish individuals from the Territories of the Seneca Nation who cause harm or pose a threat to the health and safety of the Seneca Nation and its community members; and

WHEREAS, the President of the Seneca Nation has the authority, pursuant to the Constitution of the Seneca Nation, to enforce the laws of the Seneca Nation; and

WHEREAS, Seneca Nation member Edward M. Kindt, has been convicted of the felony of second degree murder; and

WHEREAS, Edward M. Kindt is currently subject to an Executive Order, dated March 28, 2023, which excludes and banishes Edward M. Kindt from the Territories of the Seneca Nation for a period of one year; and

WHEREAS, the one year exclusion and banishment shall expire on its own terms on March 28, 2024; and

WHEREAS, the President has reassessed whether Edward M. Kindt continues to pose a threat to the health and safety of the Seneca Nation and its community members; and

WHEREAS, the President has determined that Edward M. Kindt continues to pose a danger to the Seneca Nation and its community members.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT ORDERED that Edward M. Kindt's exclusion and banishment from the Territories of the Seneca Nation shall be continued for a period of one year; and be it

FURTHER ORDERED, that upon Edward M. Kindt's entry on to Seneca Nation Territories, the Seneca Nation Marshals' Office, in cooperation with local law enforcement agencies, is authorized and directed to remove him from the Territories and to continue to remove him should he return; and be it

FURTHER ORDERED, that Edward M. Kindt's exclusion and banishment from the Territories of the Seneca Nation shall automatically renew every year until such time as the President or the Council determine that he no longer poses a threat to the health and safety of the Seneca Nation and its community members.

Dated: December 30, 2024

J. Conrad Seneca, President
Seneca Nation of Indians
